Course Policies

Classroom Rules

- RESPECT your teachers and your classmates at all times.
- Be on Time to class every day. That means that you must be in your seat when the bell rings. If you are late 3 times without a pass, you will be assigned detention.
- Be Prepared for class. In addition to your journal and a pencil, you will be responsible for knowing what other items (notes, homework, etc.) you will need for class on any given day. Always check the assignments board in the front of the room.

Consequences for violation of the rules

- Step 1: Verbal Warning
- Step 2: Given instruction to wait after class to speak with teacher and loss of one class participation point
- Step 3: Written up, loss of two participation points, sent to office, and phone call to parent / guardian

* Some actions may cause instructor to bypass steps one and two and go directly to step three. (Examples; fighting, obscene language or action toward others, throwing objects, etc. . .)

Text Book

Text books for English 7 will remain in the classroom. If you need to take one home for any reason, you will need to sign it out. The majority of our lessons will come from PowerPoint print outs and guided notes that go along with the information in the text book.

Assignment Journal

Each student must bring his or her assignment journal to class and record the following: the lesson for the day, homework, and grades.

If you do not bring your assignment journal and a writing utensil with you to class, you will LOSE A PARTICIPATION POINT.

Homework

- Occasionally homework will be assigned pertaining to the daily lessons. Homework MUST be completed on time . . .
- Late homework under 20 points receives NO CREDIT. Exceptions will be made for large projects that are worth more than 20 points; 10% will be taken off each day that large projects are late.
- If absent when the homework is assigned, the student will receive the same amount of days to complete the assignment as he or she is absent.

Tests and Quizzes

- Students will be given at least one week notice for tests in order to prepare appropriately. However, quizzes may be given at any time.
- If a student is absent the day of a test or quiz, it MUST be made up upon his or her return to school. If a student is absent the day before a test, he or she will still be expected to take the test with the rest of the class. It is up to each student to appropriately prepare for tests!

Fire Drills and Evacuations

- In the occurrence of a fire drill or building evacuation, students will quickly and quietly exit the classroom in a single file line toward the doors by the art room (entrance #3). Roll will be taken immediately upon gathering in the parking lot, so all students should stay quiet and together in a group with the class.

Hall Passes

- Students must use the folder in the front of the room to sign out. In addition, students must get their journals signed by Mrs. Pearson or Mr. Thompson to leave the room.
- Unless it's an emergency, the hall pass may ONLY BE USED when there is no instruction taking place. Do not overuse the hall pass.
